ROBERT W. MARTIN.

His death at Birmingham, Ala., has cast a gloom over this entire community, where he was well known and loved. He was born in this county Nov. 9, 1865, and from his early youth displayed those noble traits of character that called from his friends in later years the highest respect and admiration. His truthfulness to his friends, his faithfulness in the discharge of his duty and his perfect devotion to his aged parents, for whom he cared tenderly, are indeed worthy of emulation.

It can truly be said of him that he possessed all of the necessary attributes that are characteristic of an ideal young man.

He had been in the service of the L. & N. for nearly 20 years and the high esteem in which he was held was fully attested when over 1,200 of his friends gathered in Birmingham to pay their respects to his memory. The expressions of love and sympathy that were manifested in the beautiful floral designs were sufficient, if that were possible, to alleviate the sorrow of his loved ones. His parents were expecting him for a visit and when the sad news of his dreadful fate reached them it seemed more than they could bear. It was indeed touching to read the letter he had one of his comrades write them after he realized his condition, trying to console them and showing in such a beautiful way his thoughtfulness of them. When the sad message came of the terrible accident, his brother, T. T. Martin, at once hastened to his bedside but found his spirit had gone to the God who gave it. The B. of L. E. of which he was a valued member, tenderly cared for him and did all that was in human power to alleviate his sufferings. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin, two sisters, Mesdames W. R. Hocker and W. S. Holtzclaw, and Messrs. T. T., J. F. and W. P. Martin, for whom great sympathy is felt. His remains were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Glenn, Knoxville, Messrs. Joest, John Featherstone, Ed Dudderar, Frank Lindsay, Joe Daugherty, Fred Graves, George Rae and Horace Ramsey.

To his loved ones we would say:

Mourn not for Robert, whose life declared

That he had nobly borne his part,

For victory's golden crown he wears

Reserved in heaven for his faithful heart.

Mourn not for Robert, who calmly lies

By God's own hand composed to rest,

For, hark, a voice from yonder sky

Proclaims him blest, supremely blest.

A FRIEND.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocer's everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc. have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Penny's Drug Store.

A tiny four-year-old was spending a night away from home.

At bedtime she knelt at the knee of her hostess to say her prayers, expecting the usual prompting.

Finding Mrs. B. unable to help her out, she concluded thus:

"Please, God, 'scuse me. I can't remember my prayers and I'm staying with a lady who don't know any."

The Atlantic City police decline to accept the story that Charles Roberts, who was shot while on the boardwalk with Mrs. William S. G. Williams, was the victim of a highwayman, and are industriously trying to ascertain the whereabouts of Mr. Williams on that day. Friends of both Roberts and Williams deny that the latter was in any way responsible for the shooting.
